Popular Music is an international multi-disciplinary journal covering all aspects of the subject - from the formation of social group identities through popular music, to the workings of the global music industry, to how particular pieces of music are put together. The journal includes all kinds of popular music, whether rap or rai, jazz or rock, from any historical era and any geographical location.

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may therefore copy material (beyond the 10% permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US copyright law) subject to payment to C.C.C. of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 0261-1430/2013 $12.00. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions.

Notes for contributors

Typescripts should be submitted online by following the instructions at http://journals.cambridge.org/pmu. Paper typescripts are no longer required. Typescripts should be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Notes, bibliographies, appendices and displayed quotations must also be double spaced. The editors can only consider contributions written in English. Authors should not submit multiple or further articles if a decision is pending on an article already submitted. Articles should not normally exceed 10,000 words but shorter papers are welcome. A cover page should be submitted with the article, containing the author’s name and postal address, telephone number, fax number and email address. An abstract between 100 and 150 words must be submitted which gives an informative and precise account of the paper. Papers will not be accepted for publication without an abstract.

Tables, graphs, diagrams, music examples, illustrations and the abstract must be included in one document with the article and should not be submitted as separate files. Table headings should be typed up the form in “Table 1. The musical categories”. Other captions should be typed double spaced in the same style on separate sheets. Tables, Figures (which include photographs) and music examples should each be consecutively numbered through the article and their approximate positions in the text noted in the margin of the typescript. Figures and music examples should, if possible, be supplied in a form suitable for direct reproduction. Photographs must be well contrasted black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 8″ x 6″. Cross-references in the text to figures, etc. should be in the form (see Example 1), etc. MP3 sound files may be submitted to accompany a paper on the online version.

Permissions. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of the paper.

Headings. The article title and subheadings should be typed using initial capitals only for the first word and any proper names.

Notes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively through the text with raised numbers outside punctuation. Type the notes on separate sheets at the end of the article.

Bibliographical references. References must be arranged alphabetically under author(s) name(s) and then in chronological order if several papers by the same author. Surname should precede author’s initials: in respect of co-authors, the initials should precede surname. The full title of the paper must be given together with first and last page numbers. Book titles are cited in the same way the publisher as well as place of publication is now required.

Discography. Contributors are encouraged to provide a Discography when appropriate. Use the style: Joan Baez, ‘Song title’, Reprise. Gold Castle Records. 171.004–1. 1987

Quotations. Use single quotation marks except for quotations within quotations which should have double. Quotations of more than c. forty words should be indented and typed double spaced without quotation marks. Type the source on the last line at the right-hand margin.

Proof correction. Contributors receive proofs for correction on the understanding that they can provide a suitable mailing address and undertake to return the proofs within three days of receipt. Corrections should be restricted to typsetter’s errors, and any other amendments marked will be made at the discretion of the editors and publishers.
