2021 APA MEETINGS

All three divisional meetings in 2021 will be held virtually, continuing the content-rich, intellectually vibrant experience of APA meetings. Each meeting offers colloquium, symposium, and poster sessions, author-meets-critics sessions, affiliated group sessions, the Presidential Address, the Dewey Lecture, exhibits, a prize session, and networking opportunities.

In addition to all of the sessions on the divisional and group programs, don't miss the Teaching Hub mini-conference, the inaugural Sosa Prize Lecture, the Sanders Lecture, the Barwise Prize Lecture, and the Lebowitz Prize Symposium.

At the 2021 Central Division meeting, you'll find the de Gruyter Kant Lecture, the Teaching Hub mini-conference, committee-sponsored sessions, and a wide array of invited and accepted presentations.

The next Pacific Division meeting will feature the Berger Memorial Prize Lecture, the Barwise Prize Lecture, the Lebowitz Prize Symposium, the Kavka/UCI Prize Lecture, and the Sanders Prize Lecture.

Philosophy

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge is widely regarded as one of the world's premier publishers of philosophical research, having one of the most recognisable and distinguished books lists as well as a growing collection of leading journals.

Our list brings a range of high-quality books by distinguished authors to readers at both student and specialist level.

All periods and sub-areas of philosophy are covered, and the list is particularly strong in history of philosophy.
