About the African Studies Association
Established in 1957, the African Studies Association is the largest organization in the world devoted to enhancing the exchange of information about Africa. Our members include scholars, students, teachers, activists, development professionals, policy makers, donors and many others. We encourage interdisciplinary interactions with Africa. We provide access to pathbreaking research and key debates in African studies. We bring together people with scholarly and other interests in Africa through our annual meeting and seek to broaden professional opportunities in the field of African studies. The organization publishes two leading interdisciplinary journals on Africa, African Studies Review and History in Africa and promotes an informed understanding of Africa to the public and in educational institutions as well as to businesses, media, and other communities that have interests in Africa.

Aims and Scope
The disciplines of economics and philosophy each possess their own special analytical methods, the combination of which is powerful and fruitful. Economics and Philosophy seeks to promote the mutual enrichment of the two disciplines by publishing high-quality original research in all contemporary areas linking them, as well as relevant book reviews. Economics and Philosophy only publishes articles that engage with issues that are of interest to both economists and philosophers.

Topics include, but are not limited to, the foundations of rational or behavioural decision theory and game theory, the nature of rationality in general, issues at the intersection of economics with moral, political, and social philosophy, experimental research on economics and philosophy, and the philosophy and methodology of economics. Articles that employ mathematics must be written in such a way that they are accessible to readers with limited formal training. Economics and Philosophy does not publish historical or text-interpretative work unless it makes a contribution to current debates about economics and philosophy.

Journal Information
Further information about Economics and Philosophy, including instructions for preparing and submitting an article may be found by visiting http://journals.cambridge.org. The journal only publishes articles in English. Unsolicited book reviews and critical notices are not considered. Publishers may send information about books for possible review to the Book Review Editor at ecmphilreviews@gmail.com. All other correspondence about the journal should be directed to the Managing Editor at economicsandphilosophy@cambridge.org.
