Figures and Tables

FIGURES

1.2 1.3 1.4 1.5 1.6 7.1	A (simple) Bayesian network to reason over the (joint) effects of two different medications that are commonly administered to patients suffering from epigastric pains because of pyrosis Each simple sigmoid function expresses a linear separation; together they form a more complicated function of two hyperbolas A geometric interpretation of adding layers and nodes to a neural network Table representing the dataset and the resulting decision tree The Menace program playing Tic-Tac-Toe Adversarial examples for digits A fundamental rights perspective on the sources of privacy and data protection law The EU legal order – general and data protection specific Lawfulness and purpose limitation, combined	page 21 25 26 29 31 38 136 137 148
7.4	Overview of the main steps of a Data Protection Impact Assessment	155
13.1	Detect-Diagnose-Act Framework	265
	Six Levels of Automation Model	266
13.3	The value compass	278
	TABLES
	High-risk AI systems listed in Annex III Key legislative instruments on AI for labor	239 362	