The International Association for Chinese Management Research (IACMR), founded in 2002, is a professional, academic organization to serve scholars, students, managers, and consultants who are interested in advancing knowledge about the management of organizations operating in the Chinese context.

The primary goal of the Association is to promote scholarly studies of the organization and management of firms by

- Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and experience among researchers about management research in the Chinese context.
- Facilitating international collaboration between management researchers around the globe.
- Promoting the development of management research capabilities IN and ON China.
- Publishing the journal, Management and Organization Review (MOR), dedicated to the mission of the Association (MOR: <http://www.iacmr.org/MOR.htm>).

Regular activities of the IACMR include:

- Bi-annual international conference beginning with the Inaugural Conference in Beijing, PRC, June 17–20, 2004 and the second conference was held in Nanjing, China on June 15–18, 2006.
- Business meeting at the same site as the Academy of Management meeting.
- Special lectures by distinguished professors and business leaders at the business meetings.
- Research seminars by leading Chinese and international scholars in China.
- Research methods workshops for Chinese scholars and doctoral students.
- Official journal Management and Organization Review, published by Blackwell.

Positions: Chair Professor opportunities in the following business-related fields are available: Organizations and Management, Strategic Management, Marketing, Accounting, Finance, and Management Science.

Date of appointment: Open.

Responsibilities and duties: Chair Professors must be able to work full time at the school, conduct excellent research, and teach as academic leaders. They will teach in PhD programs aligned with their background and interests; lead and collaborate with junior faculty members to conduct high quality academic research; and publish in well-recognized international journals. They will also be expected to help recruit established scholars as visiting professors as well as new, promising faculty members. High quality teaching in executive programs is preferred. Suitable candidates may be directly appointed as departmental chairs.

Compensation package: In addition to a competitive annual salary (negotiable) and fringe benefits, successful candidates will also receive a once-off housing benefit (RMB200k), a once-off resettlement allowance (RMB150k), adequate passage allowance, an annual research fund (RMB100k), and flexible sabbatical leave.

Qualifications: Candidates must have a PhD degree, a well-established academic record, tenured professorship in world-class business schools, and a strong interest in working in China. Candidates with experience and tenure at prestigious universities or research institutes in Europe and North America are particularly welcome.

The University: Peking University is one of the most prestigious universities in China. It is a comprehensive university founded in 1898 and has enjoyed the longest history of the universities in China. Peking University is progressive in both research and teaching, its graduates hold important positions in government and business, and its alumni are found all around the world. The campus is well known for its beautiful environment.

The School: Guanghua School of Management (GSM) at Peking University is a leading business school in China. The School offers undergraduate, MBA, EMBA, MS and PhD programs, and it has more than 3,000 enrolled students. The School offers a variety of academic disciplines consisting of Applied Economics, Finance, Accounting, Strategic Management, Marketing, Management and Organization, Management Science, Health Care Management, Business Statistics, and Management Information Systems.
