Law and History Review is a semi-annual publication of Cornell Law School and the American Society for Legal History. The purpose of the Review is to further research and writing in the fields of social history of the law and the history of legal ideas and institutions. Publication of the Review is made possible in part by financial assistance provided by the Law-Milton and Eleanor Gould Fund of Cornell University.

Editorial communications should be directed to Editor, Law and History Review, Cornell Law School, Myron Taylor Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853. The Editors welcome unsolicited manuscripts, books for review, and suggestions concerning the Review. Manuscripts should be accompanied with return postage.

Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate and must be typed, double-spaced, on 8½" × 11" paper with ample margins on all sides. Footnotes should be typed, double-spaced, separate from the text. Footnotes should conform to the Law and History Review style sheet, a copy of which is available on request.

Business communications (including subscription correspondence, and back issue orders) should be addressed to Editor, Law and History Review, Cornell Law School, Myron Taylor Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853 (telephone: 607/256-2330).

Prices: The institutional subscription rate is $30 per volume for U.S. subscribers and $40 for European subscribers. Current issues are $15 per copy. Members of the American Society for Legal History receive the Review as part of their dues payment. ISSN 0738-2480
