International Journal of Middle East Studies
Published under the auspices of the Middle East Studies Association of North America

Editor-in-Chief
Akram Khater, North Carolina State University, USA
Managing Editor
Jeffrey Culang, CUNY Graduate Center, USA

The International Journal of Middle East Studies publishes original research on politics, society and culture in the Middle East from the seventh century to the present day. The journal also covers Spain, south-east Europe, Africa, and parts of South Asia and the former Soviet Union for subjects of relevance to Middle Eastern civilization. Particular attention is paid to the history, politics, economics, anthropology, sociology, literature, and cultural studies of the area and to comparative religion, theology, law, and philosophy. Each issue contains approximately 50 pages of detailed book reviews.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy
The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be considered by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is submitting a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.journals.cambridge.org/las/sfc.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jlas@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs
Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints
Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world’s forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
