Leiden Journal of International Law

Firmly established as one of Europe’s leading journals in the field, Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world’s most important international tribunals in The Hague and elsewhere (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others), as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
Leiden Journal of International Law (ISSN 0922-1565) is published quarterly in March, June, September and December. Four parts form a volume. The subscription price which includes delivery by air where appropriate (but excluding VAT) of volume 29 (2018), which includes print and electronic access, is £287.00 (US$455.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for institutions; £140.00 (US$230.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for individuals, which includes print only. Students ordering direct from the publishers and certifying that the journal is for their personal use can subscribe to the print version at £25.00 (US$38.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico). The electronic-only price available to institutions is £243.00 (US$392.00). Single copies are £61.00 (US$99.00 in USA, Canada and Mexico) plus postage. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered members should provide their VAT registration number. Japanese prices for institutions (including AIP delivery) are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, PO Box 55, Chitose, Tokyo 156, Japan.

Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, University Printing House, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS; or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York 10994-2133, USA. This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 22 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA (www.copyright.com). Organizations in the USA which are also registered with the CCC may, therefore, copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US Copyright law) subject to payment to the CCC. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 0922-1565/18 $35.00/30.00 (USA). ISSN 0922-1565. SSN 2156-517X. ISSNs are unique numbers assigned to specific serials publications. They are used to identify and catalogue periodicals. Only articles which fall within the scope of the journal will be considered for publication.

SUBMISSIONS
Articles in good English to be considered for publication should be submitted online at http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ljil. More information can be found at the editors’ website www.grotiuscentre.org (under LJIL).

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that neither the article as a whole, nor any substantial part of it, has been published previously nor is it being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the authors will be asked to assign copyright to the Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any materials, including photographs and illustrations for which they do not hold copyright, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in the manuscript.

All contributions to LJIL are peer-reviewed.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION
The Editors recommend the following word counts for the journal’s sections: Articles up to 10,000 words; Hague International Tribunals and Current Legal Developments up to 8,000 words; Book Review Essays up to 5,000, and Book Reviews up to 500 words.

PROCEDURES
After receipt, the contribution will be sent for peer review. If the article is considered eligible for publication, any revisions deemed necessary will be sent to the author. The author will be given three weeks to make the necessary changes.

TEXT CONVENTIONS
Copy-editing can be a lengthy and complex business, so it is essential that contributors observe the LJIL’s text conventions closely. Typos which do not may be returned for amendment. Contributions should refer to the LJIL’s rules of citation and points of style, which can be found at http://assets.cambridge.org/LJL/ljl_toc.pdf.

PROOFS
Proofs may be expected about three months before publication. Only essential typographical or factual errors may be changed at proof stage. Resist the temptation to revise or add to the text. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

OFFPRINTS
Authors of articles, review essays and book reviews will receive a pdf file of their contribution and a complimentary issue upon publication. Offprints can be purchased if the form is completed and returned to the publisher on receipt of the first proofs.
