
GARDENS AND GHETTOS

The Art of Jewish Life in Italy
VIVIAN B. MANN

This beautiful book, like the exhibition it complements, (The Jewish Museum, New York, September 1989-January 1990), introduces us to the historical and cultural context of a splendid array of works. Artifacts and architecture are generously represented along with fine arts. The many illustrations illuminate the art and life of a minority community in dynamic tension with dominant society and show the vibrant, ongoing contribution by Jews to the arts of Italy. $55.00 cloth, $24.95 paper

THE LAST JEWS ON IBERIAN SOIL

Navarrese Jewry 1479-1498
BENJAMIN R. GAMPEL

"Gampel's treatment, fully sensitive to the issues of fifteenth-century Iberian history in general and Iberian Jewish history in particular, provides much more than simply treatment of Navarrese Jewry. . . . By choosing a small Jewish community in difficult circumstances, Gampel assured himself of a study that would perforce address large issues, thereby making it of more than antiquarian interest."—Robert Chazan, author of Daggers of Faith

SHYLOCK RECONSIDERED

Jews, Moneylending, and the Medieval Society
JOSEPH SHATZMILLER

"An important, finely researched, and well documented study. . . . It supplements the traditional perception of the medieval Jewish moneylender as spurned and despised with a revised picture of the usurer as valued and respected."

—Jeremy Cohen, Ohio State
University and Tel Aviv University
