International Journal of Cultural Property provides a vital, international, and multidisciplinary forum for the broad spectrum of views surrounding cultural property, cultural heritage, and related issues. Its mission is to develop new ways of dealing with cultural property debates, to be a venue for the proposal or enumeration of pragmatic policy suggestions, and to be accessible to a wide audience of professionals, academics, and lay readers.

Cover: The Travellers, Marie-Louise von Motesiczky, 1940, in the collection of the University of Iowa Stanley Museum of Art. Dispossession, belonging, and the movement of people and objects as a result of Nazi atrocities in World War II are the main themes of this special issue, and are poignantly evoked in this painting, which is discussed further in the essay by Cleary in this issue.
