ANNOUNCEMENT

PALEONTOLOGICAL SOCIETY PUBLICATIONS

The Paleontological Society publishes two series of topical publications. Short Course Notes are published as part of the University of Tennessee Studies in Geology series for distribution at the Society's annual short course held each year with the Geological Society of America Annual Meeting. The Special Publications series offers the proceedings of symposia sponsored by the Society at its annual and regional meetings. Copies of all issues are available by mail order from: Publications Editor, Department of Geological Sciences, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996-1410, USA. Payment (4th class mail; overseas orders should add an additional $1.50 US for surface mail) should be made to the Treasurer, Paleontological Society, and should accompany the order. New prices effective beginning September 1, 1986.
