Notes on Style for Contributors
The editors ask authors to observe the following notes on style in preparing their submissions. A full style guide can be downloaded from journals.cambridge.org/JAL.

General
Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words and five or six keywords. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling
Use British English, but with the “iz,” not “ise,” suffix.

Capitalization
Please use lower case for professional titles and generic terms such as government, director, minister, common law. The titles of treaties, acts, agreements, declarations, resolutions, conventions, etc should be capitalized and not italicized.

Foreign words and phrases
Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations
Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, procl, para etc. Abbreviated forms in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form/acronym in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text; use % in footnotes.

Punctuation
Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks. Quotations more than 40 words should be indented and followed by single quotation marks. Quotations more than five lines long should be indented.

Journal articles
Title in lower case (year) volume/issue Title of Journal in italics page number of beginning of chapter at page number of quote.

Electronic sources
Cite using the phrase “available at: <http://…>,” followed by the date last accessed in brackets. Please remove all hyperlinks.

Cases
Cite cases in accordance with the normal practice in the relevant jurisdiction. Case names should be italized.

Abbreviating and cross-referencing citations
Authors’ surname Abbreviated Title in Appropriate Format for Book / Article etc. above/below at note XX. Do not use op cit, loc cit, supra, infra to refer to other footnotes. Use “ibid” to refer to an immediately preceding work with the same page number. Use “all” to refer to an immediately preceding author, or immediately preceding work with a different page number.

Always use digits for footnotes, percentages and references to sections or pages of a document.

Citations
Give all journal and book titles in full and in italics.

Books
Author’s initial and surname Title in italics (volume or edition, year of publication, publisher) at page number.

Chapters in edited volumes
Author’s initial and surname “Chapter/article title in lower case” in Editor’s initial and surname (ed) Book Title in italics (year, publisher) page number of beginning of chapter at page number of quote.

Journal articles
Author’s initial and surname “Title in lower case” (year) volume/issue Title of Journal in italics page number of beginning of article at page number of quote.

Newspapers
Author’s initial and surname “Title in lower case” (date of publication) Title of Newspaper (location if deemed necessary) at page number.
