Three new series have been added to our large

German Expressionist Prints ca.1880-1933

These important prints record how the distinctive language of 20th c. printmaking was created, largely by the young artists of Die Brücke extending the limits of Edvard Munch's work. Also included are prints by Max Klinger, Käthe Kollwitz, and the artists of Der Blaue Reiter and the Bauhaus.

American Prints ca.1880-1960

The prints range from those produced under the shadow of Whistler, through the divisions of Mod-ernists, Regionalists, and artists of the American Scene in the 1920s and '30s, to the work of Jackson Pollock and Jasper Johns in 1960.

Introducing Prints & Printmaking

A selection of 54 masterpieces of printmaking representative of the major relief, intaglio,

The Art Libraries Journal is an international forum for art librarians and for all those whose interests include art librarianship, art libraries, art departments and art collections within libraries, and art documentation of all kinds including visual resources. The contents of the Art Libraries Journal regularly include conference papers of the IFLA Section of Art Libraries.

The Art Libraries Journal publishes material in English, French, German, and Spanish; articles in languages other than English will normally be accompanied by an English summary.

In addition to articles and conference papers, the Art Libraries Journal publishes reviews of books about, or relevant to, art librarianship, and of bibliographies and major reference works within the broad area of the visual arts. A regular column contributed by the IFLA Section of Art Libraries provides current awareness of art bibliographies. Letters from readers are always welcome as a means of continuing and developing discussion of issues raised in these pages.

Contributions are warmly invited, and should be submitted to the Editor; books for review may be sent to the Editor or to the Reviews Editor (North America).

The Art Libraries Journal is published quarterly, and normally appears in March, May, September and January. It is published by ARLIS/UK and Eire for the art library profession worldwide; readers' views, comments, and suggestions are sought and valued, and should be directed to the Editor.

The Art Libraries Journal is distributed to members of ARLIS/UK and Eire (including Overseas members) as part of their membership, and is available to subscribers outside the U.K. @ £29.00 per annum, postage included.
