THEATRE RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL is published by Cambridge University Press for the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération internationale pour la recherche théâtrale.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.

2. Manuscript Preparation

The recommended length for articles is 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD should be submitted to the above email address. The author’s name, address, email address, and title of manuscript should appear on a cover sheet. An abstract of no more than 150 words should also be included as well as a brief biography.

3. Book Reviews

Publishers and Reviewers should approach the nearest Review Editor. Email information and areas of responsibility are listed on the Inside Front Cover.

Text Conventions

1. Articles must be typed and double-spaced throughout.

2. Quotations and Notes are also double-spaced. Do not exceed 45 lines per page, nor 70 characters per line.

3. Leave margins of 1" (25mm) at right, top and bottom, and a larger margin of 1.5" (40mm) on left.

4. Italics are used for titles of books, newspapers, journals.

5. Indonesia is the name of the country.

6. Leave a margin of 3.5 characters per line.

7. Articles in English of 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes) should be submitted online via journals.cambridge.org/id_TRI. Click “Submit Your Article” and follow instructions. Be ready to provide author details, article title, article abstract (150 words), keywords, and funding details (where relevant). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD, excluding author identifiers, can then be uploaded, along with additional documents such as images and author bio(s). Administrative queries can be directed to the Assistant Editor, Dr Sarah Balkin, at admin.tri@cambridge.org. The Senior Editor, Dr Paul Rae, can be contacted at editor.tri@cambridge.org.

8. Do not forget to number your pages.

9. Illustrations are indicated in the text thus: (Fig. 1). When submitting illustrations, please include comprehensive captions, drawing the reader’s attention to the important features of each picture. It is your responsibility to obtain permission for the reproduction in TRI of photographic or other illustrative materials. List the captions at the end of your document, prefaced by: ‘Fig. 1’, etc. The captions should refer to the text and NOT list simply character names, etc. Photographers must be credited.

10. If in doubt, please refer to the latest issue of TRI.

NOTES/REFERENCES: Make all references in endnotes according to the following conventions:

Newspaper article: Fran Parkes, ‘New Platform for the New York Poet’, New York Times, November 10, 2003, B1 or p. 10. Repeat references with author’s name and page number, and if there are several references to the same author include short reference to title as well.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world’s forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
