

Volume 6 Part 2 April 1976

British Journal of Political Science

Cambridge University Press

British Journal of Political Science

Editor: ANTHONY KING, Professor of Government, University of Essex

Editorial Board

BRIAN BARRY, University of British Columbia
HUGH BERRINGTON, University of Newcastle upon Tyne
IVOR CREWE, University of Essex
ROBERT DOWSE, University of Exeter
FRED. I. GREENSTEIN, Princeton University
JACK HAYWARD, University of Hull
MAURICE KOGAN, Brunel University
AREND LIJPHART, University of Leiden
SAMUEL C. PATTERSON, University of Iowa
ROBERT D. PUTNAM, University of Michigan

EDITORIAL POLICY

The British Journal of Political Science is an independent journal, whose policy is set by its editorial board. It is committed to no methodological orthodoxy over and above the normal canons of scholarship: clear and consistent use of words, logical and mathematical validity, and the use of appropriate evidence to substantiate empirical statements. Contributions are invited in all fields of political science, including political philosophy and political sociology. Work addressed to problems of general significance to students of politics will be published whatever the period(s) or place(s) drawn upon for evidence.

© Cambridge University Press 1976

PERMISSIONS

For permission to reproduce material from British Journal of Political Science, please apply to the London or New York office of Cambridge University Press.

ISI Tear Service, 325 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106, U.S.A. is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

British Journal of Political Science is published quarterly in January, April, July and October. The subscription price of a volume (which includes postage) is £17.50 net in UK (US $49.00 in USA and Canada) for institutions; £11.50 (US $32.00) for individuals ordering direct from the publishers and certifying that the Journal is for their personal use. Single parts cost £5.50 net in UK (US $15.00 in USA and Canada) plus postage. Four parts form a volume. Orders may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or to the publishers: Cambridge University Press, P.O. Box 92, London NW1 2DB, or in the USA and Canada to Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022. Copies of the journal for subscribers in the USA and Canada are sent by air to New York to arrive with minimum delay. Second class postage paid at New York, N.Y.

Claims for missing issues will be considered only if made immediately upon receipt of the subsequent issue.

The Procedure of the UN Security Council

Sydney D. Bailey

Although this book sets out to provide a comprehensive guide to the constitution and procedure of the UN, it is designed to be read as a whole as well as used as a reference book. The political context is emphasized, and the author also includes proposals for changes in the Security Council's procedure which do not require amendments to the UN charter. £10

The United Nations as a Political Institution

H. G. Nicholas

Since 1970 China and the two Germanies have become members of the United Nations, and the political, economic, and environmental activities of the UN have been modified in response to rapidly changing world events. Professor Nicholas discusses these changes in this new edition of what has become a standard work. Fifth edition £1.25 Oxford Paperbacks

The Theory of Moral Sentiments

D. D. Raphael and A. L. Macfie

The Theory of Moral Sentiments (1759, enlarged 1790) was Smith's first book. Not only is it an important work of moral philosophy, but it foreshadows the widening interests in economics, sociology, politics, and law that he took up in later works. This is the first scholarly edition in English, and as well as textual and explanatory notes there is a full introduction. £15 The Glasgow Edition of the Works and Correspondence of Adam Smith

Social Justice

David Miller

In an investigation that combines analytical, historical, and sociological perspectives, David Miller first distinguishes three fundamental ideas of justice which he shows to be socially relative and divergent; each is justifiable only in relation to a particular view of society. He then examines the assumptions underlying each idea through political writings. Finally he explores how radical differences of outlook between societies at different times relate to features of their social structure. £8.50

Oxford University Press

From THE FREE PRESS

a timely and significant look at the politics of the 'energy crisis' -

Energy and World Politics

Mason Willrich

... a penetrating analysis of the political dynamics within and among nations that have created the current world energy predicament. The author defines the long term requirements for a stable world policy and outlines the international political institutions which must be developed if the energy crisis is to be controlled.

£5.95 1976

International Political Parties:

A Comparative Handbook

Kenneth Janda

A valuable reference book which presents a detailed, comparative study of some 150 political parties throughout the world. Examining both the external relations of political parties and their internal organization, this book provides information on the activities, functions and histories of political parties from 1950 until 1962.

£21.00 1976

Knowledge and Politics

Roberto Mangabeira Unger

In the first part of this controversial book, Unger sets out to identify the fundamental premises of liberal political thought and to establish that these premises are based upon an untenable view of the nature of human knowledge and personality. He then goes on to sketch an alternative theory of human nature and indicates how this might be used to create new forms of social organization.

£7.75 1976

Collier Macmillan Publishers

Praeger Special Studies

CONGRESS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT

Edited by Harvey C. Mansfield, Professor of Public Law and Government, Columbia University, New York.

This study of power and organisation of the American Congress covers events before Richard Nixon's rise to power as well as recent developments since Watergate.

1975 boards edition £8.25 paperback £3.30

CHINA'S CHANGING ROLE IN THE WORLD ECONOMY

Edited by Bryant G. Garth, Editor-in-Chief, Stanford Journal of International Studies.

The Editors of the Stanford Journal examine the full range of political, economic, domestic and international factors which have affected China's past economic development and will continue to do so in the future.

1975 boards edition £8.25

SOVIET POLICY TOWARD THE MIDDLE EAST SINCE 1970

Robert O. Freedman, Associate Professor of Political Science, Marquette University.

Dr. Freedman deals with the period from the death of Nasser in September 1970 until August 1974, paying particular attention to the Soviet role in the Arab-Israeli war of October 1973.

1975 boards edition £9.10 paperback £3.30

THE ENERGY CRISIS AND U.S. FOREIGN POLICY

Joseph S. Szlyliowicz, Associate Professor, Graduate School of International Studies, University of Denver, and Bard O'Neill Associate Professor of Political Science, United States Air Force Academy.

Part one of this study looks at the energy crisis in the United States, and part two discusses U.S. foreign relations and U.S. defence policy. A concluding chapter identifies areas of agreement and conflict and outlines policy options for the United States.

1975 boards edition £10.20 paperback £3.85

THE FATE OF THE ATLANTIC COMMUNITY

Elliot R. Goodman, Professor of Political Science, Brown University.

Professor Goodman outlines the competing visions of the future shape of the Atlantic Community. He evaluates potential benefits and dangers of the Atlantic partnership and describes the web of multilateral institutions and transactions designed to implement the political, military, economic, and monetary policies of the North Atlantic area.

1975 boards edition £15.15

SOCIALISM IN THE THIRD WORLD

Helen Desfosses, Russian Research Center, Harvard University, and Jacques Levesque, Professor of Political Science, University of Quebec.

This study examines eleven developing countries with various types of socialist governments and describes the political culture of each country.

1976 boards edition £9.10 paperback £3.85

Further information and catalogues obtainable on request

Praeger International Ltd.
17, Quick Street London N1 8HL

PSS

THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW and PS

Institutional membership in the American Political Science Association offers subscribing members two journals, THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW and PS.

The REVIEW is the scholarly journal of the Association and includes articles covering comparative and American government, administration, public law, international relations, and political theory. An extensive book review section is also included.

PS is the Association's news journal with information on professional developments, research and study support, and professional as well as Association activities. Articles and reports on the discipline and profession are also included.

Annual Institutional Membership (Includes subscription to two journals)

Domestic Institutions Annually $50.00

Foreign Institutions $52.00