Saudi Arabia
Third Revised Edition
BY KARL S. TWITCHELL

This new, completely revised edition of a book that has been accepted as the standard work on Saudi Arabia brings the material up to date to 1958. "The book is a model of succinct information. There is hardly an aspect of contemporary life and society which is not presented and explained in straightforward prose with unusual objectivity."—N.Y. Times Book Review. "Here, obviously, is a 'must' book for every serious student of modern imperialism and world affairs."—American Historical Review.

Missionaries, Chinese, and Diplomats
The American Protestant Missionary Movement in China, 1890-1952
BY PAUL A. VARG

The American Protestant missionary movement in China began in the 1890's, came to full bloom after 1890, and was eclipsed by the Communist Revolution a scant 60 years later. This book goes beyond the missionary movement to show the tragic conflict of two basically different cultures, Western and Oriental, that never came to a full understanding of each other. The author, approaching the missionary movement as an objective outsider, devotes considerable attention to the interplay of missionary activity and United States policy in China as well as to the crucial question of why the Communists succeeded in China where the West failed.

Iran: Past and Present,
Fourth Revised Edition
BY DONALD N. WILBER

Long recognized as the standard work on this country, Iran: Past and Present is now issued in a fourth, revised edition that brings the book up to date to 1958. This new edition contains a history of the critical events since 1950, and a completely new section on the conditions and forces that shape Iran's future. "The best short summary of Iran's two-and-a-half millennia of history yet to appear in print."—Middle East Journal.
