The Intellectual Origins of the European Reformation

ALISTER McGRATH

Alister McGrath provides a meticulous examination of the nature of late medieval religious thought and presents a detailed analysis of the impact of Renaissance humanism and late medieval scholasticism, followed by a careful study of the change in attitudes to theological sources and methods as the late Middle Ages gave way to the Reformation.

240 pages, £25.00 (0 631 15144 3)

The Making of Modern German Christology

From the Enlightenment to Pannenberg

ALISTER McGRATH

'At present the most comprehensive account of the history of modern christological thought in German-speaking theology, and as such it is sure to be welcomed by anyone trying to become more familiar with the issues and persons it introduces.'

From Ockham to Wyclif

Studies in Church History Subsidia 5

Edited by ANNE HUDSON and MICHAEL WILKS

This collection is an examination of the work of Ockham and Wyclif, containing much new information on the origins and circulation of their writings, and the means by which their ideas gained currency and influenced other scholars. The book contains valuable discussions of later medieval philosophy, and of theology on the verge of the Reformation.

504 pages, £35.00 (0 631 15055 2)

The Faith of the Old Testament

A History

W. H. SCHMIDT

'Highly recommended for students . . . it is surprising how much has been compressed into one single volume.' Society for Old Testament Study Booklist

'Both the overall approach and his detailed discussions will provide much to talk about for a long time.' The Expository Times

320 pages, paperback £7.95 (0 631 15305 5)

Greek Religion

WALTER BURKERT

'The publication of an English version . . . demands a toast . . . Anyone who pretends to survey Greek religion must be phenomenally learned. Burkert is. His book is a marvel of professional scholarship.' London Review of Books

504 pages, paperback £9.95 (0 631 15624 0)

Christ in Christian Tradition

Volume Two, Part One

Professor ALOYS GRILLMEIER, SJ

Translators: Pauline Allen and John Cawte

Professor Grillmeier, here in Volume Two, Part One, continues his monumental work, Christ in Christian Tradition. First he lays the foundations, surveys the present state of research, and then goes on to give an exposition covering the development of the discussion about Chalcedon from AD451 to the beginning of the reign of Emperor Justinian I.

About Volume One (from the Apostolic Age to Chalcedon), which was published in 1965 and revised in 1975, the late Professor G.W.H. Lampe said 'a most lucid and learned account. . .'. This book is a must for every theological library.

ISBN 0 264 66071 X 360pp boards
up to 30 June 1987, £35; thereafter £42.50

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Contributions and books for review should be sent to the Editor, Professor S. R. Sutherland, King's College, Strand, London, WC2R 2LS.
2. Articles submitted to the journal should in general be between 5,000 and 10,000 words long, though articles outside these limits will be acceptable if there is some good reason for their exceptional length or brevity. Articles in two or more parts may occasionally be accepted provided each part is independently intelligible. They should normally be in English.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. The typescript should be prepared to accord as closely as possible with the typographical conventions of the journal.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
8. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorises otherwise.
9. All contributions of articles receive 50 free offprints. Reviews will receive five or more offprints of their reviews.
10. If rejected manuscripts are to be returned, stamps or international coupons should be sent to cover postage, but it would normally be simpler just to retain a copy.
11. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
