William O'Reilly, University of Cambridge, UK

The Historical Journal publishes papers on all aspects of British, European, and world history since the fifteenth century. The best contemporary scholarship is represented. Contributions come from the UK, continental Europe, North America, and elsewhere. The journal provides a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of leading historians.

Editor

P. A. Byrne, King's College London, UK

Religious Studies is an international journal devoted to the problems of the philosophy of religion as they arise out of classical and contemporary discussions and from varied religious traditions. Space is devoted to articles, of which more than 25 are published each year, and the journal also contains an extensive book review section, which includes review articles and book notes as well as normal-length reviews.
