INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to the European Association for Banking and Financial History e.V.

Copyright is committed to high international scholarly standards and invites scholars doing research on banking, financial and monetary history to submit papers on any subject, historical period and regional area. The Review freely publishes a broad approach to publishing research findings within the growing historical specialities. Articles on international banking, financial and monetary history from different perspectives including advanced empirical analysis, and the interaction between history, finance, policy and society. The Review particularly encourages submission from young scholars.

Articles should normally be of 8,000 words including footnotes, tables and any graphical or other illustrative material (graphs occupying a page is deemed equivalent to 2,500 words).

The journal is published in English and contributions should be submitted in that language. Authors whose native language is not English are encouraged to send their manuscripts to a professional native translator for a preliminary revision prior to submission.

Tables and figures should be submitted on separate pages and grouped together in a section at the end of the manuscript. Please number them in ascending order of appearance in Arabic numerals as superscript after the full stop.

Footnotes. All notes are to be included as footnotes and numbered in ascending order of appearance in Arabic numbers as superscript after the full stop. The page number being placed, ideally, at the top right-hand corner of the page.

References: If the paper includes extensive references to primary sources such as archives, statistics, periodicals, yearbooks and documentary sources, these should appear in a separate section entitled References and should follow accepted national styles, always giving an extended version for the first document cited from a source, e.g.
