Notes for contributors

Editorial policy
Theatre Research International publishes articles on theatre practices in their social, cultural, and historical contexts, their relationship to other media of representation, and to other fields of inquiry. The journal seeks to reflect the evolving diversity of critical idioms prevalent in the scholarship of differing world contexts.

1 Submissions
Articles in English of 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes) should be submitted online via journal.cambridge.org/tri. Click ‘Submit Your Article’ and follow instructions. Be ready to provide author details, article title, article abstract (150 words), keywords, and funding details (where relevant). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD, excluding author identifiers, can then be uploaded, along with additional documents such as images and author bios.

Administrative queries can be directed to the Assistant Editor, Dr Sarah Balkin, at admin.tri@cambridge.org. The Senior Editor, Dr Paul Rae, can be contacted at editor.tri@cambridge.org.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any materials, including photographs and illustrations for which they do not hold copyright.

2 Manuscript preparation
The recommended length for articles is 4000–7000 words (inclusive of notes). An electronic copy of the manuscript in WORD should be submitted to the above email address. The author’s name, address, email address, and title of manuscript should appear on a cover sheet. An abstract of no more than 150 words should also be included as well as a brief biography.

3 Book reviews
Publishers and Reviewers should approach the nearest Editor. Email information and areas of responsibility are listed on the Inside Front Cover.

Text Conventions
1 Articles must be typed and double-spaced throughout. Quotations and Notes are also double-spaced. Do not exceed 55 lines per page, nor 70 characters per line.
2 Leave margins of 1” (22mm) at right, top and bottom, and a larger margin of 1 1/2” (40mm) on left.
3Italicize titles of books, newspapers, journals.
4 Titles of articles are given in single quotation marks.
5 Notes are indicated by raised Arabic numerals (without any other sign) at the end of the sentence, following any punctuation. Notes are numbered in sequence throughout the article.
6 Use English (Oxford) spelling for your own text, but give English (Oxford) spelling for your own text, but give
7 Notes/References: Make all references in endnotes according to the following conventions:

Newspaper article: Jon Parle, ‘A New Platform for the New Poets’, New York Times, November 30, 2003, B1 or 10. Repeat references with author’s name and page number, and if there are several references to the same author include short reference to title as well.
