Notes for contributors

Manuscripts
The Editors welcome submission of articles for consideration. The length required for articles is normally 9–12,000 words, articles over 12,000 words will only be considered if there is a clear rationale for the extra length. These are also sent to independent referees. The Review is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place. It is the author’s responsibility to provide the editors with an accurate total word count for all articles on submission.

Prospective authors should submit their manuscripts online via the website: <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ris>. Detailed instructions for submitting your manuscript online can be found at the submission website by clicking on the Instructions and Forms link in the top right hand of the screen, and then clicking on the Online Submission Instructions for Authors icon on the following page.

An abstract of 100 words plus a short biographical note (appropriate for Notes on Contributors) should accompany the manuscript. To guarantee anonymity, authors should include a title page without their names, and remove any reference to themselves from the manuscript.

The Editors reserve the right not to accept articles not presented in the house style, details of which are given below.

References and notes
These should be amalgamated and signalled serially within each article by superscript numerals. References and notes should be at the foot of each page. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and publisher, at first mention. Thereafter the author’s surname and a short title should be used (not op. cit.). A cross-reference to the original citation, e.g. ‘see n.4 above’, may also be added if the short title reference is not immediately clear. The title of an article should appear in single inverted commas; the title of a book or journal should be capitalised in article and book titles.

References and notes should be typed in the form of the following examples:

Subheadings
Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide signposts for readers. They should be typed flush left with only the first word and any proper names capitalised.

General
First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editors a current address and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by airmail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to the British International Studies Association so that their interest may be safeguarded.
