Editorial Policy: Social Policy and Society welcomes scholarly papers which analyse any aspect of social policy including any associated teaching and learning issues. In particular, it seeks to encourage contributions which integrate conceptual or theoretical ideas with the use of empirical evidence. Its scope is both international and comparative, and it draws on research and developments in all of the social sciences. (See Editorial, Social Policy and Society, Volume 1, Part 1, 2001.)

Subscriptions: Social Policy and Society is sold together with Journal of Social Policy as a joint subscription only. The annual 2020 institutional-only electronic-only subscription rate is US $786 in USA, Canada and Mexico, €448 elsewhere, print plus electronic US $934 or £539; print-only US $896 or £529. Prices exclude VAT, but include delivery by air where appropriate. Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publishers: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, University Printing House, Cambridge CB2 8BS. Orders from the USA, Canada or Mexico should be sent to Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, One Liberty Plaza, Floor 20, New York, NY 10006, USA, EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country's rate. VAT registered institutions in the UK can claim VAT back. Institutions outside the UK who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at the standard rate. If VAT is applicable, institutions should provide their VAT registration number. American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard, and Visa are accepted. Payment should be made by cheque or credit card. Orders to other countries outside the USA, Canada or Mexico should be sent to the local agent.

Copying: This journal is controlled by the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA (www.copyright.com). Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the CCC may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US copyright law) subject to payment to CCC. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. To obtain permission for use other than permitted by Sections 107 and 108, or Sections 115 and 114 of the 1976 United States Copyright Act, contact Cambridge University Press. Copying for masthead purposes must be authorized by Cambridge University Press.

Manuscripts: All contributions and correspondence should be sent to the Managing Editor and/or Guest Editor as appropriate. Contributions must be accompanied by a detachable title page providing information about the text length, the position(s) held by the author(s), full correspondence and email addresses and full details of any acknowledgements. Where papers have more than one author, the contact author should be clearly specified. All contributions should be accompanied by an abstract of between 100 and 150 words, up to five key words and details of any acknowledgements.

Guidelines for Contributors

1. All contributions and correspondence should be sent to SP & S Administrator, Department of Sociology, University of Sheffield, 14-16 Portobello Street, Sheffield, S10 2TN. Email spseditors@sheffield.ac.uk

2. Articles should be up to 6,000 words including endnotes, but excluding tables and bibliography. Word length must be stated.

3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. If an author is publishing a related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgement is included in their manuscript.

4. Contributions should be typed double-spaced with generous margins on A4 paper. Contributors should send an electronic copy of the manuscript formatted in Microsoft Word, text or rich text format, by email to spseditors@sheffield.ac.uk. Keep a copy of the typescript for correcting proofs. Papers should be anonymised, ready for sending to referees. All contributions should be accompanied by an abstract of between 100 and 150 words, up to five key words and details of any acknowledgements.

6. Submissions should conform exactly to the Social Policy and Society style and authors should check the format of their own contribution with that of a recent issue of the journal (or seek advice from the Managing Editor and/or Guest Editor as appropriate) paying particular attention to references and tables. The full instructions for contributors are available from the journal’s website: journals.cambridge.org/spss.

7. Discriminatory language should be avoided. Further guidance on avoiding sexist, racist and disablist or other inappropriate language is published by the British Sociological Association (BSA) – see www.britsoc.co.uk/equality. The editorial team are happy to advise authors on the most suitable terminology to use, particularly with respect to subjects not covered by the BSA guidelines, such as age.

8. The Harvard (author/date) system should be used and reference to page numbers in the text should be shown as follows: Mattby, 2002:1 and not Mattby, 2002, p. 1.

9. Figures and tables should be numbered consecutively throughout the text. The numbers shown as superscript. Notes should be endnotes rather than footnotes and should be placed after the body of the text before the references.

10. Tables and figures should be clearly laid out and designed to fit onto a page 18 cm x 12 cm. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted, and horizontal lines limited to the top and bottom of the table, with an additional one below the column headings. Totals and percentages should be labelled, and units identified.

11. If an article is accepted for publication, first proofs will be sent to the contact author as an electronic link to a pdf document which the author downloads. Only typographical errors may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for corrections of non-typographical errors.

12. Paper offprints are no longer supplied. Upon publication the corresponding author will receive access to the online version of their article.

The Social Policy Association

Social Policy Association supports the study of all aspects of Social Policy through the sponsorship of its journals (Journal of Social Policy, Social Policy and Society), the publication of a newsletter, the organisation of an annual conference and a small grants scheme. It represents its members through contact with a range of bodies, including the ESRC. For further information about the activities of the SPA, contact: Rachael Dobson, School of Psychology, Criminology and Sociology, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Kingston University, Penrhyn Road Campus, Kingston upon Thames, Surrey KT1 2EE
