The British Journal of Nutrition

An International Journal of Nutritional Science

Volume 116, 2016 ISSN: 0007-1145

Aims and Scope

The British Journal of Nutrition is an international, peer-reviewed journal publishing original papers, review articles, short communications and technical notes on human and animal nutrition and basic science as applied to nutrition. Correspondence is encouraged in a Nutrition Discussion Forum. The Journal recognizes the multidisciplinary nature of nutritional science and encourages the submission of material from all of the specialties involved in research and clinical practice.

The British Journal of Nutrition is published twice monthly by Cambridge University Press on behalf of The Nutrition Society. The Journal is covered in Current Contents®/Agriculture, Biology & Environmental Sciences, SciSearch®, Research Alert®, Current Contents®/Life Sciences & Technology, CINAHL, and Chemical Abstracts Service. This journal accepts relevant advertisements and inserts. We reserve the right to reject any advertisement submitted. The Society reserves the right to exclude any advertisement deemed inappropriate or unsuitable.
