International Psychogeriatrics

Scope and contributions

International Psychogeriatrics is written by and for those doing clinical, teaching, and research work with older people. It is the official journal of the International Psychogeriatric Association (IPA) and is published by Cambridge University Press, Cambridge, UK. Although it is primarily concerned with psychogeriatrics, the journal welcomes contributions from all contributors with the field of mental health and aging.

Original research papers are particularly sought. Contributions include original research articles, case reports, reviews of the literature, book reviews, letters to the editor, and editorials. Apart from editorial and book reviews, which are commissioned, contributions to International Psychogeriatrics are anonymously written and submitted by authors. Papers are reviewed by two expert reviewers selected by the Editor-in-Chief. In press, about half of the papers submitted are accepted for publication.

The journal’s Science Citation Index impact factor is 2.78 (2010). Submission of a paper implies that it is under consideration for publication elsewhere, not previously published in English. Manuscripts must be formatted double-spaced with ample margins on all sides and the pages should be numbered.

Abstracts

International Psychogeriatrics is abstracted and indexed in Abstracts on Old Age, Social Gerontology, and Behavioral Sciences Data Bases.

Acknowledgements

The images appearing on the cover of this volume were provided with the kind permission of Catterall, Geleoc, Geleoc’s photographic project: LOVE, LOSS, AND LAUGHER. It is now a vision of Alzheimer’s disease, documenting the person-centered approach that took place in the United States, France, India, Japan and the Dominican Republic. In the forthcoming book, the author offers a compassionate and personal presentation of what Alzheimer’s disease is, a condition that claim, which adds a layer of complexity to the study.
