Notes to contributors
1. Article manuscripts should be submitted through the ScholarOne online submission and peer review system (http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jal). If you experience technical difficulties, please contact the Editorial Office at jal@soas.ac.uk. Submission of a manuscript to JAL implies that it has not been submitted elsewhere nor published in any form.

2. It is a condition of publication in the Journal that authors assign copyright to SOAS University of London. This ensures that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and also enables the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. In assigning copyright, authors may use their original material in other publications provided that the Journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication, and Cambridge University Press is notified in advance of writing.

NOTES ON STYLE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editors ask authors to observe the following notes on style in preparing their submissions. A full style guide can be downloaded from journals.cambridge.org/JAL.

General
Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words and five or six keywords. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling
Use British English, but with the “ize”, “ise”, “suff”, suffix.

Capitalization
Please use lower case for professional titles and generic terms such as government, director, minister, common law. The titles of treaties, acts, agreements, declarations, resolutions, conventions, etc should be capitalized and not italicized.

Foreign words and phrases
Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations
Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, proc, para etc. Abbreviated forms used in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form (acronym) in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text, use % in footnotes.

Punctuation
Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks (unless the punctuation is clearly part of the quotation) and footnote cues should come after punctuation. Use “smart” double quotation marks, followed by single quotation marks within a quotation. Quotations more than five lines long in the text should be indented.

Electronic sources
Cite using the phrase “available at: <http://...>”, followed by the date last accessed in brackets. Please remove all hyperlinks.

Cases
Cite cases in accordance with the normal practice in the relevant jurisdiction. Case names should be italicized.

Abbreviating and cross-referencing citations
Author’s surname Abbreviated Title in Appropriate Format for Book / Article etc, above / below at note XX. Do not use op cit, loc cit, supra, infra to refer to other footnotes. Use “thid” to refer to an immediately preceding work with the same page number. Use “id” to refer to an immediately preceding author, or immediately preceding work with a different page number.

Citations
Give all journal and book titles in full and in italics.
