SLIDES OF PRINTS

Selected from the Department of Prints & Drawings in the British Museum.

Der Ackerman.

Holbein, The Ploughman
From the Dance of Death, 1522-25

Woodcut
Enlarged

The British Museum has generously allowed a large number of prints in the Department of Prints and Drawings to be photographed for educational purposes.

As a consequence of working directly from the finest originals, the slides display the technique, style and quality of each print with exceptional clarity.

The complete series numbers over 1200 slides, including details. Sets and slides of single prints may also be ordered.

The Art Libraries Journal is an international forum for art librarians and for all those whose interests include art librarianship, art libraries, art departments and art collections within libraries, and art documentation of all kinds including visual resources. The contents of the Art Libraries Journal regularly include conference papers of the IFLA Section of Art Libraries.

The Art Libraries Journal publishes material in English, French, German, and Spanish; articles in languages other than English will normally be accompanied by an English summary.

In addition to articles and conference papers, the Art Libraries Journal publishes reviews of books about, or relevant to, art librarianship, and of bibliographies and major reference works within the broad area of the visual arts. A regular column contributed by the IFLA Section of Art Libraries provides current awareness of art bibliographies. Letters from readers are always welcome as a means of continuing and developing discussion of issues raised in these pages.

Contributions are warmly invited, and should be submitted to the Editor; books for review may be sent to the Editor or to the Reviews Editor (North America).

The Art Libraries Journal is published quarterly, and normally appears in March, May, September and January. It is published by ARLIS/UK and Eire for the art library profession worldwide; readers' views, comments, and suggestions are sought and valued, and should be directed to the Editor.

The Art Libraries Journal is distributed to members of ARLIS/UK and Eire (including Overseas members) as part of their membership, and is available to subscribers outside the U.K. @ £29.00 per annum, postage included.
