Book Reviews
Notes for Contributors

The Journal of Anglican Studies is an international, fully refereed journal that publishes articles and reviews current work in the study of Anglicanism. The journal publishes occasional thematic articles on special topics. Correspondence about potential topics for future thematic issues should be directed to the Editor (andrew.b.mcgowan@yale.edu).

Full Guidelines for Contributors can be found on the website of the Journal: cambridge.org/ast

Publishers are invited to send details of books for review to the Review Editor, Dr Mark Chapman (mchapman@ripon-cuddesdon.ac.uk) who will identify the reviewer. The publisher will be asked to send the book directly to the reviewer identified by the Review Editor.

The Editor welcomes articles for publication in the Journal. Submissions should be sent to the Editor as an email attachment in Word 97 or later, and/or Rich Text Format to Professor Andrew McGowan, email: andrew.b.mcgowan@yale.edu

Manuscripts should be formatted using one-and-a-half line spacing, and numbered consecutively throughout. Submissions should include a cover sheet, preferably letter head, with the title of the paper, name and title of the author, institutional affiliation and teaching or research post (if relevant), postal address, telephone, fax and email. If accepted for peer review, papers will be assessed anonymously. Except for the cover sheet, all identification should be removed.

All articles will be refereed and should normally be 5000–8000 words in length. A short abstract of 50–150 words and six to eight keywords MUST be supplied with your article.

Illustrations, tables, maps and figures must be numbered consecutively and include captions which identify the source of any image or data. Authors are responsible for obtaining and paying for all copyright and reproduction charges. Preferred formats for figures are tif or eps files, jpeg for photographs (halftones), but these may not print as well as you expect. If text labels are required as part of the jpeg half-tone it should be presented as you expect. If text labels are required as part of the jpeg half-tone it should be presented as you expect.
