Contents

| Foreword by Kailash Satyarthi | | xi |
|-------------------------------|--|-----|
| | troduction ila Shamir, Bimal Arora, Shilpi Banerjee, and Tamar Barkay | 1 |
| | Part I Law and Governance | |
| 1. | The Information Architecture of Corporate Accountability: Inside Corporate Reporting Regimes in Global Value Chains Klaas Hendrik Eller | 41 |
| 2. | Transparency Legislation in Global Value Chains: Decentralization, Market Power, and Global Hierarchies Ioannis Kampourakis | 70 |
| 3. | Tackling Forced Labour in Global Value Chains: What Role for Trade Instruments? Franz Christian Ebert, Francesca Francavilla, and Lorenzo Guarcello | 95 |
| 4. | Will Remedy Remain Rare? The Potential of Mandatory Human Rights Due Diligence to Redress Modern Slavery Ingrid Landau and Shelley Marshall | 126 |

x Contents

| | Part II Actors | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 5. | Directors' Duties and Decision-making in Global Value Chains Roseanne Russell | 161 |
| 6. | Anti-trafficking Chains: Structural Comparison of Corporate Transparency Legislation and Worker-driven Social Responsibility Tamar Barkay and Hila Shamir | 180 |
| 7. | Human Supply Chain as Global Value Chain: Employer Control in Nepal–GCC Low-wage Labour Recruitment Sahiba Gill | 213 |
| | Part III Sectors | |
| 8. | The Problem of the 'Modern Slavery' Discourse on Workers' Attempts to Centre Work: Case Studies from the Indian Context Lorena Arocha, Bindhulakshmi Pattadath, Meena Gopal, and Roshni Chattopadhyay | 245 |
| 9. | The Complexities of Construction Labour in India and the Invisibility of Labourers from the Global Value Chain Saie Shetye and Divya Priyadarshini | 271 |
| 10. | Child Labour in Value Chains: Regulating Demand and Ending Supply Varsha Joshi and Dev Nathan | 303 |
| Abo | out the Contributors | 324 |
| Ina | lex | 331 |