Figures

Introduction

1.1 Clusters of social spending at the turn of the millennium

Canada

3.1 Union density: unionized workers as a percentage of the non-agricultural labour force (1921–2002)

3.2 Federal and provincial/local governments’ share of total public revenues according to the National Accounts

3.3 Consolidated public debt as a percentage of GDP, all levels of government (1977–2001)

3.4 Ratio of UI/EI beneficiaries to total unemployed (1976–2002)

3.5a Provincial average Social Assistance benefits, single employable (1989–2002)

3.5b Provincial average Social Assistance benefits, total income, single parent, one child (1989–2002)

USA

4.1 Federal, state and local spending (1929–2003)

4.2 Federal percentage share of domestic expenditures (1840–1962)

Germany

6.1 Absolute volume of contribution payments of employers and employees as a percentage of GDP (1975–2002)

6.2 Total tax revenue, the relative shares of central, state, local government and social security funds, Germany (1973–2002)

Switzerland

7.1 Unemployment rate in Switzerland (1920–2001)

7.2 Social insurance expenditure as a percentage of GDP (1948–1998)