Front Cover illustration: A schematic illustration of direct and indirect effects of helminths and their products on host immune cells. As shown here, apoptosis occurs in various immune cells during infection with helminths. Helminth-induced apoptosis plays an essential role in parasite survival not only through suppression of anti-parasite immunity, but also via inhibition of immune-mediated tissue injury. From Zakers, Vol. 144 (13) pp. 1663–1676.
