The Journal of the College Theology Society

Horizons publishes award-winning peer-reviewed articles, roundtables, and book reviews across a wide range of topics in theology and religious studies. While rooted in a commitment to the long and deep Catholic tradition of "faith seeking understanding," that commitment also welcomes all original scholarship in theology and religious studies that contributes to its basic constructive focus. It is unique in content with its ecumenical view, wide range of methods and topics, and insightful analysis of belief interacting with culture. Horizons publishes work by college and university professors with both active research profiles and teaching experience.

Horizons is produced in association with Villanova University and is published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the College Theology Society. Horizons is included in the Cambridge Journals Online service which can be found at http://journals.cambridge.org/hor. The journal is automatically available through membership in the College Theology Society: www.collegetheology.org. Members should inform the CTS Secretary of any address changes.

COLLEGE THEOLOGY SOCIETY

The College Theology Society is a professional organization of college and university professors of religion in the United States and Canada.

The purpose of the College Theology Society is to improve the quality of the teaching of religion: by stimulating and sharing scholarly research; by developing programs of theology and religious studies which meet student needs and interests; and by exploring, evaluating, and encouraging effective ways of teaching which are interdisciplinary and ecumenical.

Annual membership dues in the Society are $75.00 (Full Professional), $60.00 (Associate), and $30.00 (Graduate Student). Membership in the Society includes a subscription to Horizons. Contact Dr. Nicholas Rademaker, Department of Religious Studies, Cabrini University, 610 King of Prussia Road, Radnor, PA 19087-3606. Phone: (610) 902-8419. E-mail: nicholas.rademaker@cabrini.edu.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Manuscript submissions to the journal should be between 25 and 30 pages, or about 10,000 words, not including notes. On rare occasions, the editors will give consideration to a lengthier submission of exceptional quality. The text and bibliographic documentation of the manuscript must conform to the Chicago Manual of Style (CMOS), 16th edition. We require that authors use endnotes rather than footnotes and that they double-space the entire manuscript.

Manuscripts must have a separate title page that includes the author’s name, affiliation, e-mail address, postal address, an abstract of no more than 150 words, and an author vita of no more than 50 words. The author’s name should appear nowhere else in the manuscript. All references to the author’s work in the text or notes should be in the third person.

Our editorial office requires two copies, one digital and one hard copy. Send the digital copy of your manuscript to the journal’s e-mail address (horizons@villanova.edu). The preferred digital format is Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), but the journal can also accept WordPerfect (.wpd) or Rich Text (.rtf) if necessary. Send the hard copy, along with a cover letter, to this address: The Editor, Horizons, St. Mary’s Hall, Villanova University, 800 Lancaster Avenue, Villanova, PA 19085.

For further information about the journal’s style guidelines, potential authors are strongly urged to review the complete set of Instructions for Contributors, available at http://journals.cambridge.org/hor/ifc.
