Articles

George H. Guthrie Paul’s Triumphal Procession Imagery (2 Cor 2.14–16a): Neglected Points of Background [79–91]

George H. Guthrie Paul’s Triumphal Procession Imagery (2 Cor 2.14–16a): Neglected Points of Background [79–91]

George H. Guthrie Paul’s Triumphal Procession Imagery (2 Cor 2.14–16a): Neglected Points of Background [79–91]

NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES

EDITOR OF NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES F. Watson
(Durham, England)

Editorial Board
B. Broekaert (Leuven, Belgium)
I. Carolin-Peetz (Cambridge, UK)
J. Cizmarik (Pumpkins Spain)
A. Deinzer (Geneva, Switzerland)
D. Do Tuit (Munich, Germany)
J. A. Hafell (Columbus, Ohio, USA)
D. R. Harper (New York, USA)
A. Inwijk (Toronto, Canada)
A. Markkanen (Mikkeli, Finland)
S. Mathews (Fort Worth, Texas, USA)
T. Mücke (Regensburg, Germany)
H. Omerzu (Halle, Germany)
C. K. Roe (Duke, USA)
B. Sandberg (Bruges, Belgium)
A. Standaert (Maastricht, Germany)
M. Tell (Hiroshima, Japan)
T. Wasserman (Delft, Sweden)
F. Wilke (Göttingen, Germany)
A. Yamamoto (Tokyo, Japan)

EDITOR OF THE SNTS MONOGRAPH SERIES P. Trebilco
(Leuven, Belgium)

THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY ex officio:
President of the Society for 2013–14: C.M. TUCKETT
(The Officiers of the Society ex officio)
Past-President: H.J. De Jonge
Past-President: P. Trebilco
Past-President: J. Chapa
President: Francis Watson, at francis.watson@durham.ac.uk.

For further information on the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas, please look at the website at https://www.sntsgroup.net/sites/snts

New Testament Studies is an international peer-reviewed periodical whose contributors include the leading New Testament scholars writing in the world today. The journal publishes original articles and short studies in English, French and German on a wide range of issues pertaining to the origins, history, context and theology of the New Testament and early Christianity. Contributions represent research at the cutting edge of the discipline, which has developed a wide range of methods. The journal welcomes submissions employing any such methods, such as exegetical, historical, literary-critical, sociological, hermeneutical and theological approaches to the New Testament, including studies that employ gender, ethnicity or ideology as categories of analysis, and studies in the history of interpretation and effects.

Scholars who wish to publish in New Testament Studies but are not able to compose academic material in one of these three languages, may submit their work in English, French or German; they are advised to contact the editor, Professor John Barclay john.barclay@durham.ac.uk, for advice regarding the possible transcription of their work into one of these languages.

While reviews are not published in this journal, the October issue carries a Books Received list of books received in the previous year. Review copies should be sent to the editor. On acceptance of a submission, contributors will be asked to send a final form of the article electronically in both word format (Microsoft Word or Word Perfect) and pdf format; they will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

In the future, Articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal. Articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal. The author should certify that the article is not being submitted simultaneously to some other journal and explain to the editor the extent of any overlap with books or articles the author has published or is likely to publish in the near future. All articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal.

In order to ensure an anonymous reviewing process, contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work in the text or footnotes.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press. Contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

Submissions
From January 2014 papers should be submitted via the following website: http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/snts. Contributors are requested to send one electronic copy in Microsoft Word or Word Perfect and simultaneously a second copy in pdf format. If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact the Editor, Professor Francis Watson, at francis.watson@durham.ac.uk.

The author should certify that the article is not being submitted simultaneously to some other journal and explain to the editor the extent of any overlap with books or articles the author has published or is likely to publish in the near future. Articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal.

In order to ensure an anonymous reviewing process, contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work in the text or footnotes.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press. Contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

Copyright
This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., for institutions (including libraries and their clients) who are not registered for the Copyright Clearance Center’s “Rightslink” on-line system. Japanese prices (excluding delivery) are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, 5-11, 2-Chome, Chiyoda, Tokyo 102, Japan. Orders which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, University Printing House, Shalsbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York, 10994-2133. Copies of the journal for subscribers in the USA, Canada and Mexico are sent by air to New York with minimum delay. Periodicals postage paid at New York, NY and at additional mailing offices. POSTMASTER: send address changes to USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Studies, Cambridge University Press, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York 10994-2133, claims for missing issues should be made immediately on receipt of the subsequent issue. For all queries worldwide, email journals@cambridge.org.

Copying
This journal is equipped with the Copyright Clearance Center, 22 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923 (www.copyright.com). Organizations in the USA who wish to copy material may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US copyright law) subject to payment. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes.

In the USA, it is illegal to copy more than 100 copies of any one article for internal or external distribution. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge in writing.

Publications in New Testament Studies are included in the database of the American Library Association. Subscribers are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

Contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

New Testament Studies is an international peer-reviewed periodical whose contributors include the leading New Testament scholars writing in the world today. The journal publishes original articles and short studies in English, French and German on a wide range of issues pertaining to the origins, history, context and theology of the New Testament and early Christianity. Contributions represent research at the cutting edge of the discipline, which has developed a wide range of methods. The journal welcomes submissions employing any such methods, such as exegetical, historical, literary-critical, sociological, hermeneutical and theological approaches to the New Testament, including studies that employ gender, ethnicity or ideology as categories of analysis, and studies in the history of interpretation and effects.

Scholars who wish to publish in New Testament Studies but are not able to compose academic material in one of the three languages used by the journal (English, French and German) are advised to contact the editor, Professor John Barclay john.barclay@durham.ac.uk, for advice regarding the possible transcription of their work into one of these languages.

Published under the auspices of Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas

Submissions
From January 2014 papers should be submitted via the following website: http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/snts. Contributors are requested to send one electronic copy in Microsoft Word or Word Perfect and simultaneously a second copy in pdf format. If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact the Editor, Professor Francis Watson, at francis.watson@durham.ac.uk.

The author should certify that the article is not being submitted simultaneously to some other journal and explain to the editor the extent of any overlap with books or articles the author has published or is likely to publish in the near future. Articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal.

In order to ensure an anonymous reviewing process, contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work in the text or footnotes.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press. Contributors are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

Copyright
This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., for institutions (including libraries and their clients) who are not registered for the Copyright Clearance Center’s “Rightslink” on-line system. Japanese prices (excluding delivery) are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, 5-11, 2-Chome, Chiyoda, Tokyo 102, Japan. Orders which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to a bookseller, subscription agent or direct to the publisher: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, University Printing House, Shalsbury Road, Cambridge CB2 8BS, or in the USA, Canada and Mexico: Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfilment Department, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, New York 10994-2133, claims for missing issues should be made immediately on receipt of the subsequent issue. For all queries worldwide, email journals@cambridge.org.

Copying
This journal is equipped with the Copyright Clearance Center, 22 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923 (www.copyright.com). Organizations in the USA who wish to copy material may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of US copyright law) subject to payment. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes.

In the USA, it is illegal to copy more than 100 copies of any one article for internal or external distribution. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge in writing.

Publications in New Testament Studies are included in the database of the American Library Association. Subscribers are expected to ensure that material submitted bears no indication of their identity either at the head of the article or in references to their own work. They will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.