

The Harlaxton Prize

The University of Evansville, in cooperation with Albion, is pleased to announce the second year of competition for the HARLAXTON PRIZE to be awarded to the author(s) of the best essay to appear in Albion. The award will be $200, and the recipient will give a public lecture at the University of Evansville, or, if resident in Great Britain, at the university's campus at Harlaxton Manor, Northumberland (expenses paid). This second award will be made on 15 March 1976, and applies to volume seven (1975-76) of Albion. The deadline for submitting manuscripts for this award is 1 October 1975. Manuscripts are to be sent in duplicate to: Dr. Michael J. Moore, Managing Editor of Albion, Department of History, Appalachian State University, Boone, N.C. 28608. Manuscripts concerned with all areas of British studies are eligible for consideration. Texts should not exceed 9,000 words, or about 26-30 pages in typescript.
