Postmaster: Send address changes to Journal of British Studies, The University of Chicago Press, P.O. Box 37005, Chicago, Illinois 60637.

Editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Journal of British Studies, Duke University, 204 Carr Building, Durham, NC 27708. Prospective authors should submit two copies of manuscripts, the original and a good-quality photocopy, to the Editor. Manuscripts not accompanied by return postage will not be sent back. The entire text of article manuscripts, including displayed quotations and footnotes, must be typed double-spaced with generous margins to allow for copy editing. If you use a word processor, do not justify the right margin. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and appear in a separate section at the end of the text. Other guidelines for the preparation of manuscripts for submission to the Journal of British Studies will be sent on request. Articles should conform to The Chicago Manual of Style (14th ed.) in matters of style and will be edited accordingly. The Editors may suggest other changes in the interest of clarity and economy of expression.

Copying beyond Fair Use: The code on the first page of an article in this journal indicates the copyright owner's consent that copies of the article may be made beyond those permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law provided that copies are made only for personal or internal use or for the personal or internal use of specific clients and provided that the copier pay the stated per-copy fee through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 27 Congress Street, Salem, Massachusetts 01970. To request permission for other kinds of copying, such as copying for general distribution, for advertising or promotional purposes, for creating new collective works, or for resale, kindly write to Permissions Department, The University of Chicago Press, 5801 S. Ellis Ave., Chicago, IL 60637.
