How To Comply With The New Copyright Law

Libraries everywhere have found the easy way to fill photocopy requests legally and instantly, without the need to seek permissions, from this and over 3000 other key publications in business, science, humanities, and social science.

Participation in the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) assures you of legal photocopying at the moment of need. You can:

Fill requests for multiple copies, interlibrary loan (beyond the CONTU guidelines), and reserve desk without fear of copyright infringement.

Supply copies simply and easily from registered publications. The CCC's flexible reporting system accepts photocopying reports and returns an itemized invoice. You need not keep any records, our computer will do it for you.

The Copyright Clearance Center is your one-stop place for on-the-spot clearance to photocopy for internal use. You will never have to decline a photocopy request or wonder about compliance with the law for any publication registered with the CCC.

The Middle East Studies Association of North America, Inc.

This association was founded in 1966 in order to promote high standards of scholarship in the field of Middle Eastern studies and to facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications. In addition to sponsoring the Journal, which is published for the Association by the Cambridge University Press, MESA publishes a Bulletin periodically, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other professional services for its members from time to time. Individuals interested in becoming members should write to: Headquarters and Secretariat, Department of Oriental Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721. Fees are as follows: Full and associate members $40.00; students $18.00. Fee includes subscription to International Journal of Middle East Studies, and to the MESA Bulletin and MESA Newsletter.

Members of the British Society for Middle Eastern Studies may subscribe to International Journal of Middle East Studies at a special rate of two-thirds of the present regular subscription price. Enquires concerning membership in BRISMES should be sent to the Secretary, Dr. D. Hopwood, St. Antony's College, Oxford, England.

Notes for Contributors

Contributions and Editorial Correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Afaf Lufti al-Sayyid-Marsot, Gustave E. von Grunebaum Center for Near Eastern Studies, University of California, Los Angeles, CA 90024. Authors should reserve one full copy of their manuscript for use in correcting proofs. Articles must be in English, should not exceed 12,000 words, and should be accompanied by a short summary. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation must be consistent within each article and conform with the latest edition of A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

Preparation of Manuscript. A title page should be prepared carrying the article title, auxiliary short title (not over 50 characters), author's full name (in the form preferred for publication), and author's affiliation (including mailing address). The entire manuscript (including notes) should be typed double-spaced on 8 1/2 x 11 inch or A4 paper, with margins set to accommodate 70 characters per line and 25 lines per page, and should not exceed 43 typed pages. Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively.

Loanwords and Foreign Words. Loanwords (accepted English words such as ulama, alim, Shi'ite, sheikh, qadi, Sunni, and others) should be spelled in accordance with the first choice presented in Webster's Third New International Dictionary. Foreign words (not yet loanwords) must conform with the Journal's transliteration system; they should be italicized and defined at first use (and not italicized thereafter). Diacritics, except for ains and hamzas, should be omitted except where they are imperative to the argument. Authors who do use diacritics and transliteration have the total responsibility for consistency and accuracy in manuscript.
