Instructions to Authors

1. Manuscripts should be sent to:
   Dr. Blossom T. Wigdor,
   Editor-in-Chief, Canadian Journal on Aging,
   c/o Programme in Gerontology,
   University of Toronto,
   455 Spadina Ave., Room 407
   Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A1

2. Articles in most cases should not exceed 20 pages in length including references, tables and illustrations. Articles should be typed double spaced (including references) and submitted in quadruplicate (4 copies).

3. A title page must be included containing the name of the author, highest academic degree awarded, name and address of institutional affiliation. A condensed title for a running page headline not to exceed 40 letters and spaces should be supplied.

4. Abstract. Each author is required to furnish on a separate sheet an abstract of not more than 100-150 words. A French translation of the abstract is necessary. The author must provide this or accept the expense of the translation of the abstract.

5. Style of Referencing. The articles submitted to the Psychology, Social Science and Social Welfare sections should be written in the American Psychological Association style of referencing. The Biological and Health Science sections should be written using the Vancouver style. If more appropriate the APA style may also be used in these sections.

6. Tables. Tables should be typed on separate sheets. They should be referenced according to the particular referencing style adopted.

7. Figures. Figures should be submitted in a form ready for publication. The cost of reproduction of complex figures will be borne by the author.

8. Authors' alterations of the page proofs in excess of 10 per cent of cost of composition will be charged to the author.

9. Submission of a paper to this Journal implies that it has not been published or under consideration by another Journal, and if accepted for this Journal, is not to be published elsewhere (except as Society Proceedings) without permission.

10. Authors are asked to indicate for which division they feel their manuscript is most appropriate.
