College Seminars Series

Seminars in Psychopharmacology

Edited by David J. King

Linking relevant basic neuropharmacology to clinical practice, this book is an excellent introduction to an ever-expanding and fascinating subject. It aims to bridge the gap between the theoretical basis for the mode of action of psychotropic drugs and guidance on their clinical use, and should increase interest and understanding of the drugs widely used in clinical practice.

£17.50, 544pp, 1995, ISBN 0 902241 73 7

Seminars in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

Edited by Dora Black & David Cottrell

From assessment to outcome, from normal development to unusual syndromes, from theoretical perspectives to treatment, the reader will find this a clear, concise, and invaluable overview of the field.

£15.00, 298pp, 1993, ISBN 0902241 55 9

Seminars in Basic Neurosciences

Edited by Gethin Morgan & Stuart Butler

This book will appeal to anyone needing to update their knowledge of the neurological aspects of anatomy, physiology, pharmacology, psychology, pathology, endocrinology and radiology.

£15.00, 336pp, 1993, ISBN 0902241 61 3

Seminars in Psychology and the Social Sciences

Edited by Digby Tantam & Max Birchwood

The theories considered in this book are likely to dominate the research and service agenda over the next decade. Ethnicity as a determinant of health care, connectionist models of mental functioning, and the effects of sex and gender on mental health are some of the theories covered here.

£17.50, 358pp, 1994,
ISBN 0 902241 62 1

Seminars in Practical Forensic Psychiatry

Edited by Derek Chiswick & Rosemary Cope

A concise account of the specialty from a strongly practical perspective. It systematically describes the relationship between psychiatric disorders and offending, with detailed discussion of the criminal justice system, court proceedings, mental health legislation, dangerousness, prison psychiatry, and civil issues. It is up-to-date, with references to the Reed Report, the Clunis Inquiry, supervision registers and recent legislation. Career guidance and a chapter on ethical issues are included.

£17.50, 359pp, 1995, ISBN 0 902241 78 8

Seminars in Alcohol and Drug Misuse

Edited by Jonathan Chick & Roch Cantwell

A clear review of the aetiology, epidemiology, treatment and prevention of dependence on and misuse of alcohol and illicit and prescribed drugs is presented. With a balance of theory, recent research and practical clinical guidelines, the book covers specific and common problems in mental health as well as in general medicine.

£13.50, 246pp, 1994, ISBN 0 902241 70 2
