Membership
The Institute welcomes as members any who are interested in philosophy. There are branches of the Institute in many regional centres, details of which are on the Institute’s website. In these branches, and at the London headquarters, an annual programme of lectures is arranged. Members receive copies of Philosophy but not the Supplements (see under Subscriptions below), but these are available to members at a 20% discount.

The annual subscription is £25.00, £45.00 in the USA and Canada. For full-time students and those registered as unemployed the subscription is £10.00 or $22.00. Applications should be made to the Hon. Director, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PR, or to the Institute’s website http://www.royalinstitutephilosophy.org

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Organizations in the USA who are registered with the CCC, therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of USA copyright law) subject to payment of the per copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes.

Copyright
This journal is registered with the Copyright Licensing Agency. Organizations authorized by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

Subscriptions
Philosophy (ISSN 0031-8191) is published quarterly in January, April, July and October. The well-established RIP Lecture Series and collections of the papers delivered at the annual conference organized by the Royal Institute of Philosophy are published as Supplements to Philosophy and included in the institutional subscription price. Two supplementary volumes are published annually. An institutional subscription to Philosophy includes three issues of Think. The subscription price (excluding VAT) of volume 92 (2017), which includes print and electronic access, is £50 (US $905.00 in the USA, Canada and Mexico). The electronic-only price available to institutional subscribers is £431 (US $767) in the US, Canada and Mexico. Prices include delivery by air. EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country’s rate. VAT registered subscribers should provide their VAT registration number. Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be sent to the Journals Fulfillment Department, Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, Linslade Way, Box 87, Milton Keynes, MK5 6PU, UK; or in the USA and Canada, Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, 800 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, MA 01231, USA; or in Mexico, Cambridge University Press, Journals Fulfillment Department, P.O. Box 499, Mexico 10000, Mexico. Japanese prices for institutions are available from Kinokuniya Company Ltd, PO Box 55, Chitose, Tokyo 156, Japan.

Editorial Policy of Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The Institute is not editorially committed to any school or method and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needlessly technical language.

Instructions for Contributors

Prospective authors should email their contributions as .doc files (not pdfs) to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org

Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred.

Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style.

Quotation marks

Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. E.g. ‘He cried out “one should only use double quotation marks” and stormed off.’ Unless the punctuation is an integral part of the quotation, it should be outside the quotation marks.

E.g. She looked up and asked ‘Lule thin’

He nodded and replied ‘yes, that’s exactly right’

Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks. Scape quotes should be in single quotation marks.

Italics

The titles of books and journals should be in italics. Foreign words and phrases should be in italics.

E.g. ‘reducio ad absurdum’ and ‘a priori’.

Hyphens, en-rules, em-rules

En-rules should be used for parentheses, rather than em-rules.

E.g. ‘en-rules are = according to Hart’s rules = the most appropriate for London journals.’

NOT ‘en-rules are = according to Hart’s rules — the most appropriate for London journals.’

Em-rules should be used to indicate ranges, rather than hyphens.

E.g. ‘196-234’ NOT ‘196-234’

Footnotes

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes. Citations should also be given as footnotes and should appear as follows.

NOTE — do not include ‘pp.’ or ‘p.’ to indicate pages.

Structure

Sub-sections should be headed with Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

Abstracts should appear at the start of articles, and should be between 100 and 200 words in length.

At the end of articles, the author’s biographical note will be inserted. This will include the author’s name, email (unless otherwise stipulated by the author), and a couple of sentences detailing research interests and recent publications.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright (on certain conditions) to the Royal Institute of Philosophy so that their interest may be safeguarded. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be included in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Contributors’ corrected proofs should be sent via email to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org.
