History
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world’s leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today’s historians.

Instructions for contributors
MHI serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and its related fields, from the period of 1650 to the present. MHI concerns itself primarily with apprehending the contextual origins and receptions of texts in order to recover their historical meanings. But we understand ‘texts’ in the broadest sense, so as to encompass multiple forms of intellectual and cultural expression. These include, but are not limited to, political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, both the social sciences and the natural sciences, music, architecture, and the visual arts.

1. Submissions
Articles submitted for consideration should be sent to Modern Intellectual History by email at Modern.IntellectualHistory@dartmouth.edu. Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript Preparation
Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MHI. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/MIH.
