

Registered by Australia Post
Publication No. VAW4651

$ 4.00

AUTUMN/WINTER, 1985

Vol. 10 Nos. 1 & 2

MELBOURNE FAMILY CARE

IN THIS ISSUE:

No. 1

COMMUNITY-BASED RESPITE CARE FOR DISABLED CHILDREN
ONCE MORE WITH FEELING
THE SINGLE ADOPTIVE PARENT

No. 2

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR '85
GUEST EDITOR: LLOYD OWEN
SERIES OF ARTICLES ON YOUTH ISSUES

MELBOURNE FAMILY CARE ORGANIZATION
LIBRARY
P.O. BOX 3, GLEN WAVERLEY, 3150
(03) 800 0100
RECEIVED

EDITORIAL

Margarita Frederico

COMMUNITY-BASED RESPITE CARE FOR DISABLED CHILDREN 1

Marigold Williams

The author identifies the philosophy for such programs and reviews the development and outcomes of these community programs.

ONCE MORE WITH FEELING — A RESPONSE TO OAKLEY 5

Frank Ainsworth and Patricia Hansen

In this article the authors challenge the traditional approach to conceptualizing residential care for children.

THE DEBATE CONTINUES . . . 7

Lesley Oakley

A CURRENT ISSUE IN ADOPTION: THE SINGLE ADOPTIVE PARENT 8

Juliet Harper

This paper addresses the issues related to placing a child for adoption with a single parent. The author also examines current practices in Australia.

GUEST EDITORIAL 12

Lloyd Owen

OBSERVATIONS OF THE THEMES OF IYY '85 — FROM A SOCIAL ECOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE 15

Lloyd Owen

In the first of three articles addressing the themes of International Youth Year, the author introduces a conceptual framework based on a social ecological perspective. The first article focuses on personal development.

WORKING WITH YOUTH 20

Harry Specht

In his Keynote Address at the opening of the Asian-Pacific Conference on Juvenile Delinquency (San Jose) the author reflects on some issues relating to youth in trouble with the law in industrial societies.

BRITISH RESPONSES TO JUVENILE DELINQUENCY INCORPORATING EXPERIENCES IN ENGLAND AND WALES AND WHERE RELEVANT, SCOTLAND 22

Dianna M. Yach

The author provides a useful perspective for comparison with Australian experience. She reviews trends in the British juvenile justice system and comments on the processes followed in responding to juvenile offenders.

N.S.W. CHILDREN'S WEEK — October 19th-27th, 1985 32

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH YEAR '85 33

BOOK REVIEWS 34

Ron Tiffen