Successful hospitalization of patients with no discernible pathology
G. Innes

A not-so-benign injury
R. Petrie

Case Report • Observations
Rib fractures following minor trauma in older patients: a not-so-benign injury
S.G. Campbell, M.A. Dingle

Controversies • Controverses
Emergency medical services

Resident Issues • Préoccupations des résidents
Creating a Trauma Fellowship for Canadian emergency physicians
S. Sookram

Diagnostic Challenge • Défi diagnostique
Abdominal pain in pregnancy
K. Hollohan

Answer
K. Hollohan

Humour and Humanity • Humour et humanité
Shopping for seniority
V. Robinson

Successful hospitalization of patients with no discernible pathology
G. Innes

News • Nouvelles
CAEP.ca Web site update, J. Thompson; Health’s Angels?, G. Innes; CAEP Annual Scientific Assembly abstract submission forms; 1999 CAEP Resident Research Competition; B. McGraw; A decade of growth: the 1999 membership report, G. Dickinson; Marilyn Li receives honorary lifetime membership, C. Nijssen-Jordan; Division of Emergency Medicine earns department status.

Media Review • Revue des médias
National Emergency Airway Management Course, J.M. Thompson

Calendar • Calendrier
December

Classified Advertising • Annonces classées

Advertisers’ Index • Index des annonceurs

Service Information • Renseignements aux lecteurs

Instructions for Authors • Directives à l’intention des auteurs

See July 1999, p. 141; voir la page 142, juillet 1999

About the cover:
Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Charlottetown, PEI.

Photo compliments of Catherine L. MacIsaac, Communications Coordinator, Queens Region Health and Community Services