Rebels against War

The American Peace Movement, 1941-1960

by Lawrence S. Wittner

The first book to carry the history of the American Peace Movement beyond the 1930s and into the present. The author has made extensive use of the largely untapped files of American pacifist groups, as well as using material gained from the Swarthmore College Peace Collection, and from personal interviews with many leaders of the peace movement.

The Jamestown Voyages under the First Charter, 1606-1609

Volumes I and II

Edited by PHILIP L. BARBOUR

The first modern, annotated collection of all the documents and letters relating to the Jamestown voyages during the life of the original charter. It gives a graphic contemporary picture of the first few years of the colony out of which the United States was destined to grow. 84s. net the set

Cambridge Studies in the History and Theory of Politics

The Conscience of the State in North America

E. R. NORMAN

In this comparative study Dr Norman traces the movements towards the formal separation of Church and state since the mid-eighteenth century in Britain, Canada and the United States. He shows that the redefinition of their relationships has followed an essentially similar, though independent and chronologically uneven, course in all three countries. 37s. 6d. net

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

This Association was founded in 1955 to promote the study of the United States within the United Kingdom. It welcomes applications for membership from people interested in the history, society, government and politics, economics, geography, literature and thought of the United States. It publishes a Newsletter twice yearly, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning current subscription rates and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Charlotte Erickson, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych, London, W.C. 2.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester 13. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words, although longer articles may be submitted by agreement with the Editor. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies.

Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on quarto paper. Wide left-hand margins should be provided. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.

The rule about double-spacing applies also to footnotes. These should be inserted for the following purposes only:

- (i) to give references for direct quotations used in the text;
- (ii) to give references to the main authorities on disputable questions; and
- (iii) to give evidence relied on by the contributor for any new or unusual conclusions.

General notes intended for the Editor and printer should be attached on a separate sheet. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for use in correcting proofs.

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent direct to the Editor by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.

Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be bought according to an agreed scale of charges.
