Area Studies
Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and stand-alone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

The Association for the Study of Modern Italy (ASMI)
The Association was founded in November 1982 by Christopher Seton-Watson with the following purposes, as defined in its constitution:
(a) To bring together persons in the United Kingdom who are interested in modern Italy, from whatever discipline or profession.
(b) To organize conferences, meetings, seminars, lectures and exhibitions.
(c) To publish newsletters and other material.
(d) To seek co-operation with appropriate institutions and individuals in Italy and the United Kingdom.

The officers of the Association are: Chair: Lucy Riall; Secretary: Stuart Ogilby; Treasurer: Maria Maccaferri.
ASMI website: http://www.asmi.org.uk

ASMI is registered under the Charities Act 1960: Charity Number 296240.

ASMI Membership
Membership of ASMI includes a subscription to Modern Italy, together with information mailings to members. Members are also entitled to reductions on fees for conferences and seminars organized or sponsored by ASMI.
Annual Membership subscription rates are £40 for ordinary members, £20 for students and the unwaged. To join visit www.asmi.org.uk/membership.

Christopher Seton-Watson Memorial Prize
A prize of £500 is awarded to the best article published in the journal each calendar year. For details see the ASMI website.
