Instructions for contributors

Any editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Co-Editors: Dr. Sinéad Moynihan and Dr. Nick Witham on the following email address: jasreviews@leicester.ac.uk

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it is an original work of scholarship and has therefore not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press and British Association of American Studies (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media and as reproduction images rights and high resolution files, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should not exceed 8,000 words (excluding footnotes) OR 12,000 words (including footnotes). Manuscripts should be submitted via the online submission system at mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstuds. Authors should remove their name from the manuscript and should ensure that their manuscript is fully anonymised. Authors should make sure that any tracked changes on the file have been removed.

File names should be of the type AMSauthorname.doc or .rft for ease of identification. Diagrams, maps, and illustrations should be made into an eps file or a tif file and the file name should be AMSauthorname1.eps or .tif (where the number is the figure number) - please refer to cambridge.org/core/journals/journal-of-american-studies/instructions/instructions-contributors for further information regarding technical specifications. If you request colour figures in the printed version, you will be contacted by CCC-RightsLink who acts on our behalf to collect author charges. Please follow CCC-RightsLink’s instructions in order to avoid any delay in the publication of your article.

Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.

Open Access Policy: Please visit cambridge.org/openaccess for information on our open access policies, compliance with major finding bodies, and guidelines on depositing your manuscript in an institutional repository.

3. Text preparation

Authors should refer to the detailed instructions provided at cambridge.org/core/journals/journal-of-american-studies/instructions/instructions-contributors before submitting their work.
