History

Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Contributions of about 10,000 words should be submitted by email to the editorial office with a message that includes your name, telephone number, and email address. Submissions should be sent as an attachment in the format .doc or .docx to <sic@post.tau.ac.il>. The editors require that the article be introduced by a paragraph of about 150 words that presents its argument.

The journal follows the author-date reference system that is generally used in the social and natural sciences. ‘Documentation 2 Author-Date Citations and Reference Lists’ of the Chicago Manual of Style and a back issue of the journal should be used as guides. More detailed instructions for contributors and specific guidelines (e. g. for transliteration from Russian or Hebrew) are available from <http://journals.cambridge.org/action/displayJournal?jid=SIC>. Unusual alphabets, special characters, mathematical and chemical formulas, and all diacritical marks should be clearly indicated. Articles may be illustrated by a small number of figures in black and white, formatted in TIFF, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi for halftones and 600 dpi for line drawings. For further information, contact the editorial office.
