Positions in Finance
University of Washington

One or more positions may be available in Finance beginning in the 1985-86 academic year. We are looking for a person with the capability and desire to engage in original research in business finance, investments, international finance, or financial markets, and with excellent teaching abilities. A strong background in economics and in quantitative methods or econometrics is required. We are primarily looking for Assistant Professors; however, there is a possibility of hiring at the Associate or Full Professor level if the individual is exceptional. Visiting positions also are likely to be available.

The University of Washington offers an excellent environment for younger faculty. We have a very strong research-oriented faculty who can provide stimulation and encouragement to individuals who are just establishing their careers. In addition, our close ties with the Economics and Accounting Departments offer faculty members rewarding opportunities for interdisciplinary research projects.

As an equal opportunity employer, the department is especially interested in making the availability of this position known to minorities and women. Candidates should send a cover letter indicating research and teaching interests, a vita, a summary of courses taken, the names of four references, and any available examples of recent research to:

Professor Peter A. Frost, Chairman
Department of Finance, Business Economics and Quantitative Methods
School of Business Administration DJ–10
University of Washington
Seattle, WA 98195
University Founder’s Professor

School of Management
University of Texas at Dallas

Nominations and applications are invited for an individual with a distinguished record of excellence in research and teaching, for appointment as a University Founder’s Professor in the School of Management at the University of Texas at Dallas. This endowed professorship includes an annual discretionary research stipend.

Candidate should possess outstanding qualifications in research methodology, or in the design and conduct of professional educational programs, within the management disciplines of accounting and finance.

Salary is negotiable and commensurate with achievement.

The University of Texas at Dallas is an upper-level institution with an enrollment of over 7,500 students, approximately half of whom are graduate students. The University stresses interdisciplinary work in a research-oriented atmosphere and offers over 50 degrees in upper division and graduate education, including two doctoral degrees in the School of Management. Appointment to begin September, 1985. Closing date for nominations and applications is February 15, 1985.
