Volume V: Poetry and Experience Wilhelm Dilthey

Edited, with an Introduction, by
Rudolf A. Makkreel and Frithjof Rodi

“Princeton’s ambitious Dilthey project is of the greatest historical and theoretical interest and the present volume—on poetry and experience—is the very heart of the undertaking and of Dilthey’s own life work. Contemporary interest in the German tradition (from Heidegger to the Frankfurt School) cannot but be illuminated and enlightened by a return to this, one of its principal sources.”

—Fredric R. Jameson, University of California, Santa Cruz

Poetry and Experience inaugurates a six-volume translation of the major writings of Wilhelm Dilthey (1833–1911)—a philosopher and historian of culture who has had a significant, and continuing, influence on twentieth-century Continental philosophy and in a broad range of scholarly disciplines. In addition to his landmark works on the theories of history and the human sciences, Dilthey made important contributions to hermeneutics and phenomenology, aesthetics, psychology, and the methodology of the social sciences. Selected Works will make accessible to English-speaking readers the full range of Dilthey’s thought, including some historical essays and literary criticism. The series provides translations of complete texts, together with editorial notes, and contains manuscript materials that are currently being published for the first time in Germany. $32.50
