STATEMENT OF AIMS
Global Constitutionalism - Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law (GlobCon) seeks to promote a deeper understanding on the foundations, limitations and principles of political order and their dynamics over time on a global scale. The journal is interested in work that refers to constitutionalism as a template for empirical, conceptual or normative research on past, present and future political and legal practices, within and beyond the state.

All articles are subject to anonymous interdisciplinary peer-review.

With thanks to the Chair of Political Science, especially Global Governance, University of Hamburg and the Centre for Globalisation and Governance, for institutional support.

Cover design by Emma Keet.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES
Global Constitutionalism will review articles between 7,000 and 15,000 words (including notes and bibliography), brevity is encouraged and shorter papers will be advantaged in acceptance decisions. Please include a word count with submission, along with an abstract of approximately 200 words which is not repeated from the paper itself. Please include up to five keywords for the article. Authors should submit an anonymous version stripped of all identifying references to the author(s) that can be sent to reviewers and a separate title page including their contact details. The citation style of the submission should either be Chicago or Harvard Style. Endnotes should not be used.

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted online at: http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/gcn
Any enquiries can be sent via email to the journal’s Managing Editor Mr. Sassan Gholiaghia.
E-mail address: sassan.gholiaghia@wiso.uni-hamburg.de
