Information for authors

Instructions for the preparation of manuscripts are similar to the requirements outlined in the Australian Journal of Psychology, with the following major exceptions:

[i] Spelling should conform to the Macquarie Dictionary.

[ii] Capitals should only be used for words which are capitalised in the Macquarie Dictionary, except where authors use capitals to distinguish subject groups or procedures (e.g., Pre-training group; Maintenance phase).

[iii] Reprints. Contributors of accepted articles will receive a complimentary copy of the Journal and copies of their own article. Requests to the Editor for reprints will be directed to the author(s).

More detailed information is available from the Editor on request.

Copyright

Copyright to authored material published in the Australian Journal of Guidance and Counselling rests with the author(s) unless it has been commissioned by the Association.

Advertisements

Advertisements for conferences, publications or professional services may be accepted for the Journal. Rates are available on request.
