A SOARING EAGLE: Alfred Marshall 1842-1924

Peter Groenewegen

"A scholarly and comprehensive study of Marshall's life and work, particularly interesting on his early background."

—John K. Whitaker, University of Virginia

This outstanding new book places the major features of Marshall's life and work within the rich institutional setting of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Britain.

More than just the life of a major economist, this book deals with economics and mathematics education at Cambridge, contemporary controversies over socialism, imperialism, free trade, eugenics, religious belief, social welfare and the women's movement.

Peter Groenewegen, University of Sydney, Australia.
